We arrived eager to start a new year
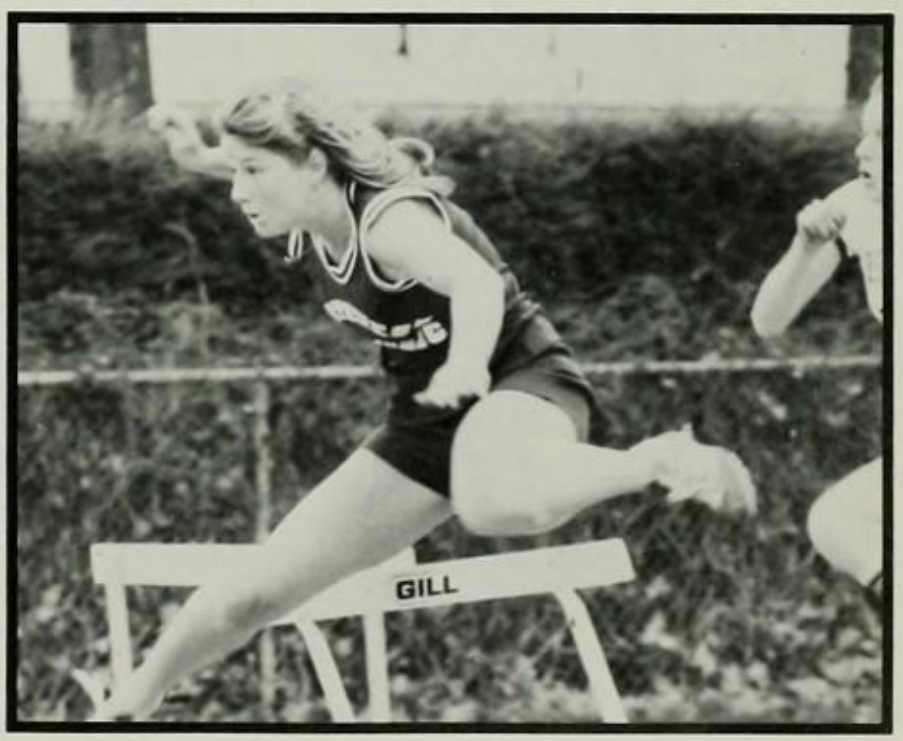
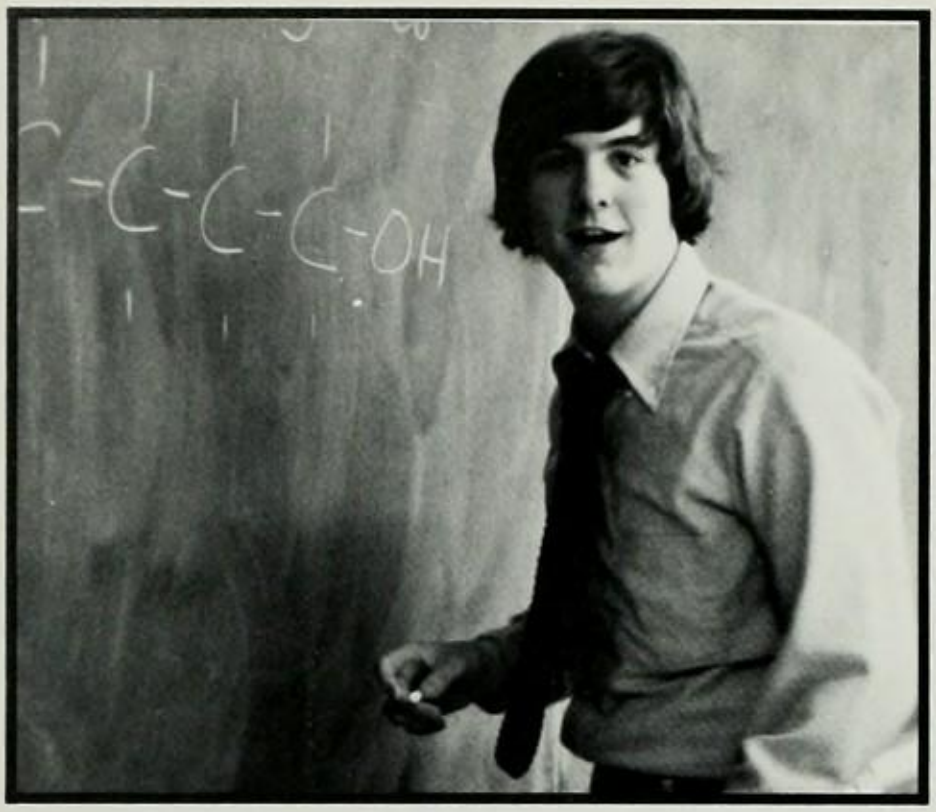
And quickly settled in Encountering obstacles, we overcame them

Having challenges issued, we met them





Examining ourselves and our peers we came away wiser Savoring our victories and persevering through our defeats

Now we move into a new phase in our lives Never to forget the times we had.

PASTORAL COUNSELORS: Miss Nancy Deren, Father Michel Gosselin.

No man is an island, entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main.

— John Donne

It's never easy movin' on to something new But,
you must leave your past behind
And
start living your life
just one step
at a time.
You can't do anything
without that first step;
You only get a million
If
you put forth that dime,
You can only win the race
one step
at a time.
You learned to walk and talk
just one step
at a time
So,
in your life
You must take everything in stride
And,
live your life
one step
at a time.
Be here now,
don't look back
You're building your future right now.
If
you don't do it now you will always wish you did Just remember to do everything
in your life
Just
one step
at a time.
—Patricia Whittel

The Lord, Shepard and Host

The Lord is my shepard;
I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose.
Besides restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.
He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley,
I fear no evil; for you are at my side.
With your rod and your staff
that give me courage,
You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
You annoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
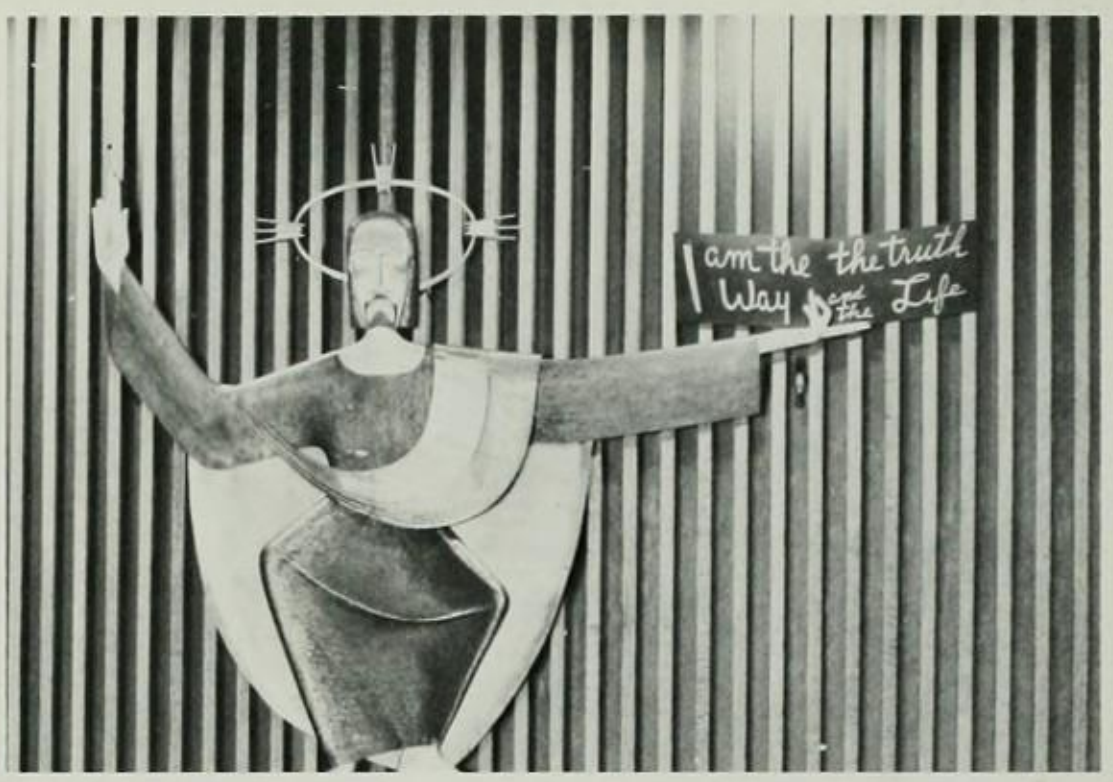
for years to come.

— Psalm 23



Ask, and it shall be given you;
Seek, and ye shall find;
Knock, and it shall be open unto you.

— Matthew, vii, 7

To everything
there is a season,
And a time for every purpose
under the heaven.

— Ecclesiastes, iii,1

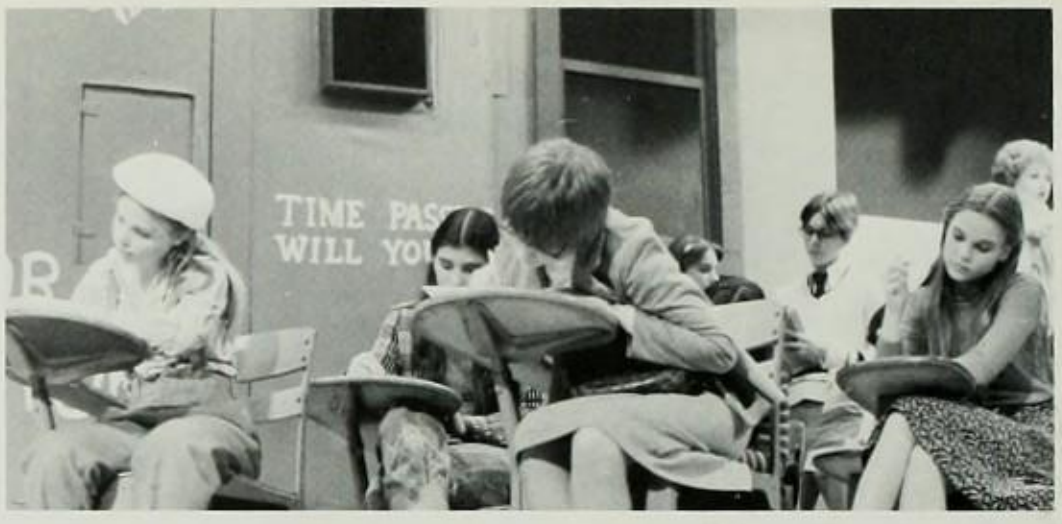
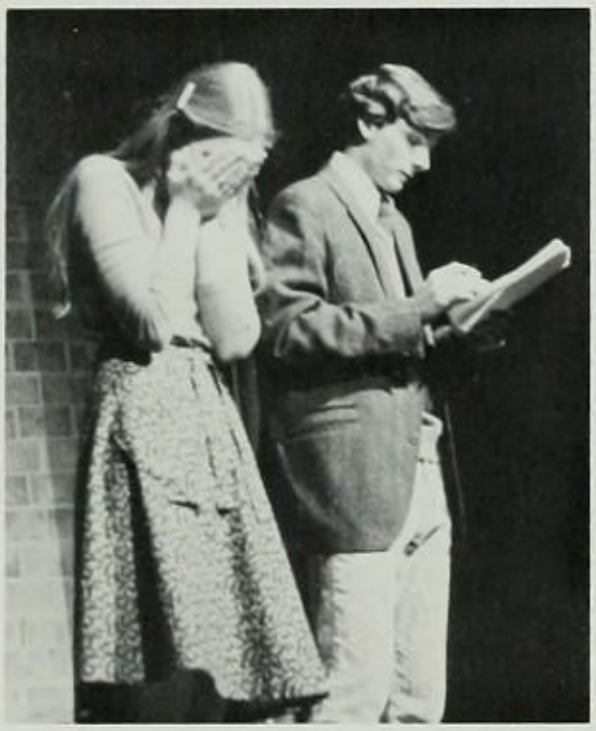
MIDNIGHT ON THE BAY

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE





HURRY SUNDOWN

A CHRISTMAS CONCERT

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

we couldn't get our lockers open freshman year due to inexperience, while the locker rule kept them shut in our Senior year.

surprise birthday parties were held at 6 A.M. and other crazy hours.

we couldn't remember anything.

the Mr. Bill Show visited 6th period Art.

We gave a Day for the Handicapped and no handicapped people came.

it took Mr. Akin only 2 steps to get across a room.

we moved a 'Bay' into the gym at 'Midnight'.

Henry Smith proposed to Donna Calderelli in a phone booth and was told he had a wrong number.

the Football players invaded the WDRC truck and Brad Davis.

Oscar and Felix moved into the Home Ec. room.

we won the Magazine Drive 3 years in a row.

'Toga' spirit wasn't in vogue, but mis-matched socks were.

we were always donating $5 to the school to change courses.

Chris Brown and Jim Ullman got "plastered" in Art.

we attempted to achieve a restaurant atmosphere in the cafe.

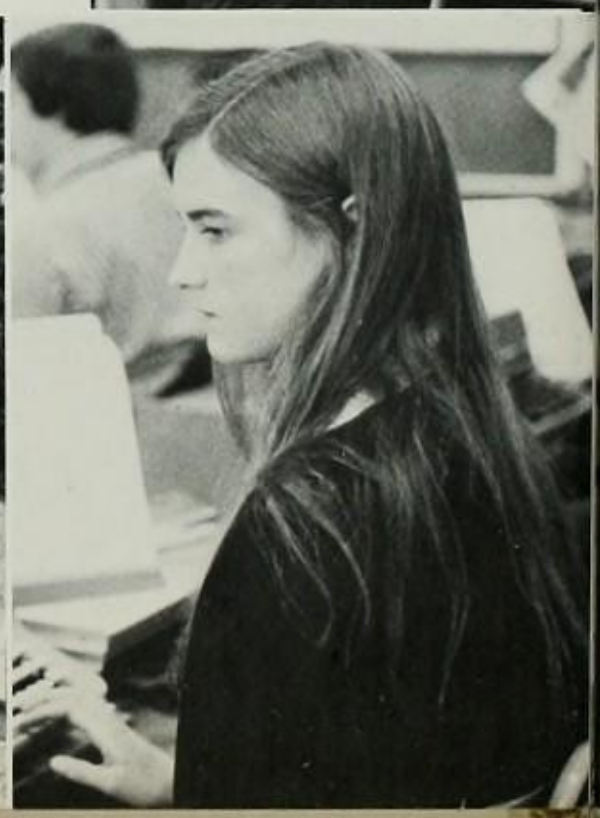
Drew, Maryann, and Jim met 'The Fonz' (bow-wow!)

Fr. Ivan kept giving vocabulary words and words and words . . .

we cleaned the Homerooms during homeroom.

G. G. almost lost her head.

snow came, but snow days didn't.



REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Parking stickers appeared, or cars disappeared.
Ski trips were always being cancelled.
Mr. Moore attempted his Elvis impression.
Moose was Santa and ding-a-linged through the halls.
Lavoris on the rocks became a favorite 'drink' before school functions.
Sr. Doris fell asleep during a religion seminar class.
Jackie Miller created a 'Big stink' in the 600 hall.
Friendlys' Scrooge visited the school.
the Senior Shack had its annual grand re-opening and closing.
we all went on a hayride.
'California Oranges, Texas Cactus, we play St. Paul's just for practise' became the battle-cry of the boy cheerleaders.
those maps of Conn.'s Rivers and Highways continued to be made.
we rowed to classes on rainy days.
"Brew-volta" danced the night away in the 306 Shop.
we missed assigned study but were the probable cause of it.
Andy Witek was invited to 'have a cookie' at Shevon's after the Jr. Prom.
we tripped over our tongues with the teachers' last names.
the Yearbook editors had many verbal boxing matches after school in 101.

Take time to be friendly —
It is the road to happiness,
Take time to dream —
It is hitching your wagon to a star,
Take time to love and be loved
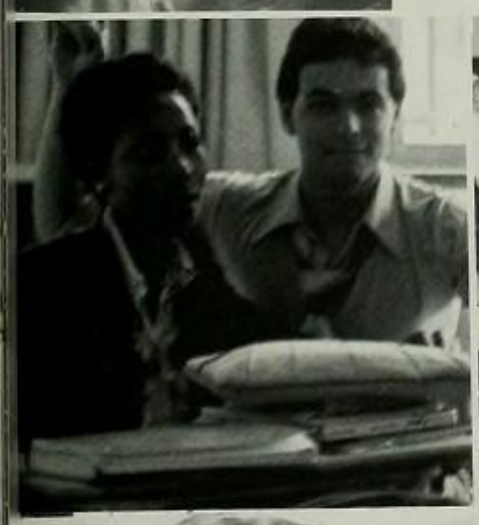
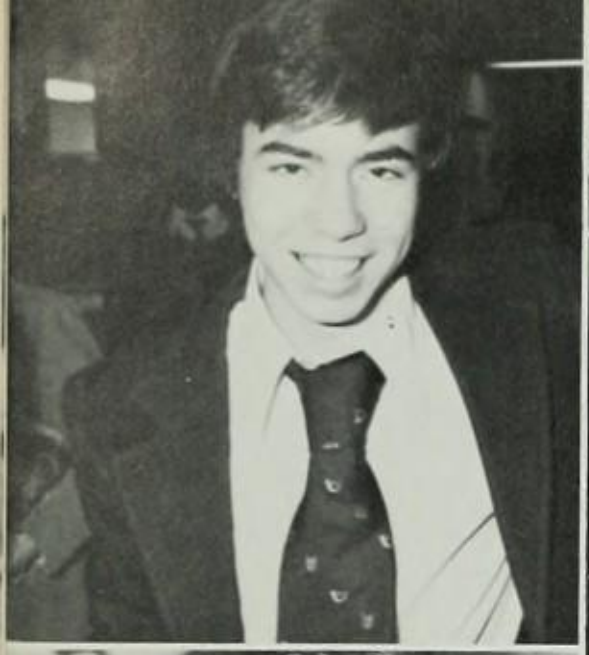
It is the privilege of God,
Take time to look around —
It is too short a day to be selfish,
Take time to laugh —
It is the music of the soul.
— Old English Proverb





And now it is finished.
With so many things undone.
So many things unknown.

I will not know what to tell them when they ask me what I have learned, or what I will do. There are no certainties attached to these milestones. I have learned simply that I do not know. I suppose I will saythat I am older.

Footprints

There was a man who had just died and he reviewed the footprints he had taken in his life. He looked down and noticed all over the mountains and difficult places he had traveled there was one set of footprints. On the smooth and easy paths, there were two sets of footprints.

He turned to Christ and said, "There is something I don't understand. Why is it that down the hills and over the smooth and easy places I see two sets of footprints for you have walked by my side, but here on the rough and difficult places, I see just one set of footprints. Have I walked alone?"

Christ turned to the man and said, "It is that while your life was easy I walked along at your side, but here when the walking was hard and the paths difficult, I realized you needed me most, and I carried you."

Lisa,

We had alot of fun this year. I'm really glad I came to Northwest and got to know you. We had alot of fun in home room and health. Never forget our trips to the law library before "flirt studies" on Mondays. I hope I could have been a help to you with all your problems around "pram time." Remember me forcing you to eat a big fat sundae at Friendly's? It was worth it, huh? Well, I hope we have alot more classes and studies together next year. I know we'll see each other over the summer - we can go to Riverside and the beach. Maybe I'll get lucky and my parents will go away for the weekend and I can have a big party. anyway, It's been a great year and I'll always remember you being there for Monday morning home room talks.

Love

Holly
